

Camouflage

Richie Kotzen

Livin on a pipe dream tryin to make the right scene Reachin for a brass ring without life in your hand Talkin through the motions criticize devotion Breakin out the door and never findin the kye

Pacifier motion void of all emotion fallin out fallin down and over again take association over dedication How far can you go without takin a step you want and you want and you kill yourself to get you die and you die and you ain't seen nothin yet you hide and you hide just to stay above the crest you're a fake, a lie... now try and camouflage that

Like a changing season adapt to fit the reason integrity whats it means to you it's a lie hold out till you see it then you try and be it you're lost, a fool... what can I say

you want and you want and you kill yourself to get
you die and you die and you ain't seen nothin yet
you hide and you hide just to stay above the crest you lie and you live but it's all the same you're fake, you are nowhere ... now try and camouflage that
