

Come Back (Swear to God)

Richie Kotzen

I've been talkin' it over with myself
I could leave it open but I cant decide we're in so far now I cant see clear and it's all over my head

how long can you hold on to a promise that's what this whole charade has come to I was so wrong and I know right now that I cant come back this time

I know I put you through a lot I'm different now I swear to god
oh say it say you'll let me come back I'll give you everything I got tell me that wanna start
oh say it say you'll let me come back

I've been movin' slower in my life talkin' the time to let this hole fill up and so far I can say that I feel like everything is comin' arou nd
