

Devils Hand

Richie Kotzen

It was all a dream I was strong and lean
I lost all my inspiration to the Devil's Hand

I should have listened to my mother
She told me kid dont push your luck
Your woman's gonna leave you
I threw everything away
Tell me who I am oh open up my eyes

It was all a dream I was strong and lean
I lost all my inspiration to the Devil's Hand
I was all for her she was all for me
I lost all her adoration to another man
That she don't know
She don't know him
She'll never love him
The way she loved me

I've been slipping into bad things
So I can put my mind to waste
No I don't wanna feel you

It's a lesson I've been served
If only I could go back and relive those years

But it was all a dream I was strong and lean
I lost all my inspiration to the Devil's Hand
I was all for her she was all for me
I lost all her adoration to another man
That she don't know
She don't know him
She'll never love him
The way she loved me

It was all a dream I was strong and lean
I lost all my inspiration to the Devil's Hand
I was all for her she was all for me
I lost all her adoration to another man
That she don't know
She don't know him
And she'll never love him
The way she loved me
