

Don't Ask

Richie Kotzen

You know my name you know my face you know my touch
You know my voice you know my words
And you know where we stand
I'm not your man I never was
And I don't answer any questions

Because I'm free I'm free from making promiss tonight
I wanna live a little on my own without a fight
You say you need me when I'm gone but your better off alone

Don't ask Don't ask me if I love you cause I don't
Don't ask Don't ask me will I be there cause I won't
Cant you see I'm doin' so much better on my own
So don't ask me why don't ask why

You know my street you know my house
You know the cars I drive
You know my bed you know my type
And you know whats it's like
I'm not so bad I'm not unkind and I don't really wanna hurt you

But I'm free I'm free from making promises tonight
I wanna live a little on my own without a fight
You say you need me when I'm gone
But your better off alone

So don't ask don't ask me if I love you cause I don't
Don't ask don't ask me will I be there cause I won't
Can't you see I'm doin' so much better on my own
So don't ask me why don't ask why

I'm free I'm free from making promises tonight
I wanna live a little on my own without a fight
You say you need me when I'm gone
But your better off alone
I'm beggin' cant you see... baby please

Don't ask don't ask me if I love you cause I don't
Don't ask don't ask me will I be there cause I won't
Cant you see I'm doin' so much better on my own
So don't ask me why don't ask why
