Drift

Richie Kotzen

Through pain and suffering I'm finding a way
To get over most of what I face
I'ts a long hard life when there's no one who cares
It's tough finding hope when there's nothing there
I'm looking at time but it's not always fair
I look into the future but I don't know what's there
I think about our love and what it could become
I just can't help myself from doubting what I know

I'm so far twisted I'm unraveled and blind
Tell me that we're more than just a moment in time
I know that I'll miss ya if I leave you behind
Maybe I'm drifter
But maybe you could drift into my life

I hear you saying... you try to comfort me
But all the word I hear could be deceit
I'm gonna be this time... more than I have
But it's so hard to trust when all you know is bad
I try so hard to get out of the past
You tell me that you're timid but you're kickin' my ass
Tell me to dream but I can't even dream
I keep thinki' that you'll coming here
then drift out of my life

I'm so far twisted I'm unrevaled and blind
Tell me that we're more than just a moment in time
I know that I'll miss ya if I leave you behind
Maybe I'm drifter
But maybe you could drift into my life
