

Let Me In

Richie Kotzen

Walkin on a broken bed of glass
Tryin hard to stay avobe the past
Realizeing that this rope
Wont lost but I cant stop theres something
I need fallin down so deep inside the frame
In between the lines behind the pain upside down
Insane and rearranged
But I cant stop you've got what I need
One knock will not let me in Two people slippin through the cracks of life three times I lost this fight I wont back down now we can survive let me in

Addiction a trap no explanation
Both hands tied in knots with expectations
Prophecy denied give up and face it but I cant stop
You've got what I need
Dont you know the stuff you got is killin me
