

Running

Richie Kotzen

Time, time keeps a rolling like a river of life
And now I stand, stand in the middle, I see it all slipping by Wait, wait until tomorrow for the meaning of life
Give me faith, faith for the dying, take me to the end of the line

And in the end I guess I'm running, yeah I'm running from myself
So I can feel alive
Yeah in the end I guess I'm running, yeah I'm running down myself
Until I feel alive

Fly, fly until the edge, to the edge of the sky
I tell you truth, truth don't come easy until we realize
Life, life doesn't see me, why don't you open up, up your eyes
Time, time keeps a rolling like a river of life

And in the end I guess I'm running, yeah I'm running from myself
So I can feel alive
Yeah in the end I guess I'm running, yeah I'm running down myself
Until I feel alive

And in the end I guess I'm running, yeah I'm running from myself
So I can feel alive
Yeah in the end I guess I'm running, yeah I'm running down myself
Until I feel alive
