

The Beginning

Richie Kotzen

Am I talking to myself?
Is there anybody listening?
If I asked you for your help
Would you be there like the way I was?

Did you think I live for you?
Do you think I breath and live for you?
Can you tell me what I'm finally fighting for?
I don't see the reason anymore

And I feel like I'm falling, caught in a spell
And it feels like the only way is down
I can't tell if I've been losing touch
Or if I know myself
Tell me how do I get back to the beginning

Ooh ooh ooh ooh
Ooh ooh ooh ooh

Am I talking to myself?
All the words I'm hearing meant for me
Am I lost inside the world?
Where the choices have been made for me

And I'm finding that I'm fighting with myself
Yeah, I'm finding that I'm fighting with myself
And I feel like I'm falling, caught in a spell
And I feel it like the only way is down
I don't know if I've been losing touch
Or if I lost myself
Tell me how do I get back to the beginning
Tell me how do I get back to the beginning
Tell me how do I get back to the beginning
