

Thunder

Richie Kotzen

Stars in the eyes
Of the child unaffected
Time passed you by
Now deny and reject it

I say what I wanna say and I don't lie
I do what I gotta do 'cause I'm free and wise
I live how I wanna live, it's how I get by

I am here, feel my thunder
Because you know I'm paying the cost
If you dream to steal my thunder
I will stand behind my gun
And watch you fall

Pray to your god
While I make thunder
Lay in her arms
What's it like, I don't wonder

You skip so you gotta talk but you're not wise
You're weak and you think you're strong but so am I
You're still young but you still know you're gonna die

I am here, feel my thunder
'Cause you know I'm paying the cost
If you dream to steal my thunder
I will stand behind my gun
And watch you fall

I say what I gotta say 'cause you gotta buy
I do what I gotta do 'cause I'm free and wise
I live how I wanna live and I don't die
I think I'm getting stronger

You say you talk and you really talk and you [?]
But you cry like a little bitch on the inside
Better wake up, better wake up

I am here, feel my thunder
'Cause you know I'm paying the cost
If you can dream to steal my thunder
I will stand behind my gun

I am free, hear my thunder
We are shamed and we are lost
If they can dream to steal my thunder
I will stand behind my gun
And watch them fall
