

World Affair

Richie Kotzen

Words is going wrong and people can't see why Times are changin' fast now is the time to try To put away our differences see eye to eye
The promoted land we ain't but baby its worth a try

Cocaine dealin' stealin' lived a life of crime
Died the age before he could legally drive
Money is the reson why she's out all night
Of all good things to ask for may God shed his light

Cause livin' is a word affair And lately we ain't livin'
right
No matter where your hangin' hood ot the highland Its a word to word affair

Babies makin' babies just like Sly Stone said but that ain't what she's thinkin' when she's in his bed Brother goes to school so he can stay ahead if one good kid can make it there's hope in the end

Cause livin' is a word affair and lately we ain't livin'
No matter where your hangin hood or the highland its a world to world affair
