

Come Back As Me

Richie Sambora

What do you want me to say
I'll tell you anything you wanna know
You wanna know about disappointment
Baby, I haven't watched that show
I've been up, I've been down
You seen me crawling with my face on the ground
This pain, this pride
I carry around like a knife in my side

In spite of it all
For all that you see, if I die tomorrow, I'd come back as me
Rewind and press play
I'll burn out the screen
If I die tomorrow, I'd come back as me

Hey, What do you want me to say
I gave her everything I could give
But everything just wasn't enough
So I just let live and let live
I got lost, I got found
Break my heart but it don't make a sound
Hard times, bad luck, I've had my share but it's turning around
Grateful for the burden, even before it felt good
So here's my revolution
Won't be misunderstood

In spite of it all, I'm comic relief
If I die tomorrow, I'd come back as me
Rewind and press play
I'll burn out the screen
If I die tomorrow, I'd come back as me
Turn it up, baby

I'm grateful for the burden, even before it felt good
So here's my revolution
I won't be misunderstood

In spite of it all, for all that you see,
if I die tomorrow, I'd come back as me
Not Elvis or God, not Frankie not Dean
If I die tomorrow, I'd come back as me
In spite of it all, for all that you see
If I die tomorrow, I'd come back as me
Not Elvis or God, not Frankie not Dean
If I die tomorrow, I'd come back as me
