

I Pray

Richie Sambora

It's called life, yeah, I'm feelin' full of hope
All my guesses turn to no's, you can see right through me
Life, it's a cruel, cruel joke
While it's tryin' to make you laugh, your life is hangin' by a rope

No matter what God you're hopin' to
What God you're talkin' to
What God you're lyin' to
You're two lies from the truth

Got no alibis, I'm way too on the line
I pray, I pray, I pray
That we will rise above, in the name of love
I pray, I pray, I pray
Take me higher, take me higher
There will be no clouds, our sun keeps shinin' down
I pray, I pray, I pray

It's right now, yeah, I hope we realize
That we're almost paralyzed, but we believe in Why, hope old fellowship sailin' in
Before my skin keep wearin' thin, this is the time for seein'
I won't apologize for the way I feel inside
Like we landed in a twilight zone
We can't make our way back home

Got no alibis, I'm way too on the line
I pray, I pray, I pray
That we will rise above, in the name of love
I pray, I pray, I pray
Take me higher, take me higher
There will be no clouds, our sun keeps shinin' down
I pray, I pray, I pray

So many people just spend their days
It's only you and now
If we conjurer up compassion
Then we can work it out

No matter what God you're comin' to
What God you're talkin' to
What God you're lyin' to
You're two lies from the truth

Got no alibis, I'm way too on the line
I pray, I pray, I pray
I'm tryin' to believe, I'm tryin' to perceive
I pray, I pray, I pray
Take me higher, take me higher
There won't be a cloud, I'm gonna keep shoutin' down
I pray, I pray, I pray
I'm tryin' to believe, I'm tryin' to perceive
I pray, I pray, I pray
Take me higher, take me higher
I pray, I pray, I pray
Tryin' to believe, tryin' to perceive
I pray, I pray, I pray

Take me higher, take me higher
Tryin' to believe, tryin' to perceive
I pray, I pray, I pray"
