

Songs That Wrote My Life

Richie Sambora

When you first made love, your first kiss
Your first broken heart, you remember this Dylan and Moses, Lennon and Paul
Buddy, what a baby, played the blues for us all

Hail! Hail! Rock 'n' Roll
Just let the music come and see your soul
Boom Boom, Tumbling Dice
Dancing in the Streets, baby, Don't Think Twice

These songs wrote the story of my life
My life
Three chords and the truth
They never lie, they'll never die
Brown Sugar, American Pie
Didn't die, no no
Excuse me
While I kiss the sky

Yeah yeah, yeah
Yeah yeah, yeah

Bruce, Sinatra, Silvio, Elvis and his boys
All the young dudes making all that noise
Bowie, Beck, and Slow Hand
Jimmy fucking Page
Chuck wrote Johnny B. Goode
Motown was the rage

Yeah, yeah, yeah

These songs wrote the story of my life
My life
Three chords and the truth
They never lie, they'll never die
Brown Sugar, American Pie
Didn't die, no no
Excuse me
While I kiss the sky

La di da, la-la-la di da
The songs that wrote my life
La di da, la-la-la di da
The songs that wrote my life

When you first made love, your first kiss
Your first broken heart, you should remember this Here, There and Everywhere
We were Living on a Prayer
Three chords can change the world, you see
With words and melody

These songs wrote the story of my life
My life
Three chords and the truth

Didn't die, no no
Excuse me
While I kiss the sky

La di da, la-la-la di da
The songs that wrote my life
La di da, la-la-la di da
The songs that wrote my life
La di da, la-la-la di da
The songs that wrote my life
La di da, la-la-la di da
The songs that wrote my life
