

ACT!

Richy Mitch & The Coal Miners

Act! Do something
I just wish you would feel something towards me
I don't care if its hate

Act! Do something
I just wish you would throw something towards me
I been up a bit late

This old Ivers & Pond
That is broken and worn
In its out of tune form
While its chair is too short

And I scream right at its heart
A pathetic shot in the dark

Set the leaves love
Will you just stay in one place for once?
I'm afraid of your scheming
You're afraid of my dreaming

Set my peace love
Will you just stay in place for once?
And I won't come right back...

Act! Do something
I just wish you would feel something towards me
I don't care if its hate

ACT! Do something
I just wish you would throw something towards me
I been up a bit late

Your love is a dream of a drive
Use my good arm to steer
I'd give the back of my life
To have you in this moment here...

I will fall, too
Hard enough to feel it
It's breaking up my healing

I'm holding onto
The parts of me you're stealing
I'm bursting through new ceilings
