

Money Talks

Rick James

When you're out walkin'
and money's talkin'
Just stop and listen
to what's it's sayin'

Don't need a dollar
to be a scholar Drop all your money
and don't you holler

When you hold the cash
and the dough
and those greenback dollars go Money's walkin', money's walkin'

People need to eat
To put shoes
on their little baby's feet That's money talkin', yeah

yeay yeah yeah
Oh Yeah
Money Talkin
yeay yeah yeah
Oh Yeah

Ronnie ran for President Because he wants to control where the money's spent

What about the war and destitute
Well, they don't matter
They do not compute

What about the blacks and the whites
and the reds are so uptight Cause money's walkin', money's walkin'

Taxes rising high Till my cup
Is so empty I could cry Money's talkin', yeah

yeay yeah yeah
Oh Yeah
Money Talkin'
yeay yeah yeah
Oh Yeah

Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah

Money talk
Money, money
I say yeah
Money talk

Money, money
I said yeah yeah yeah yeah
Money talk
Money, money
I say yeah
Money talk
Money, money

Money talkin' loud and clear in my ear

She works the corner of Twelfth and Vine Making her tax free money
pinching every dime

She has to hustle
to make ends meet Even a workin' lady finds it hard to eat

What will be the deal in the end
if to live we've got to steal
But the money's walkin', money's walkin'

Ronnie find the cure
this is just too much for us to endure That's freakin' talkin', yeah

yeay yeah yeah
Oh Yeah
Money Talkin'
yeay yeah yeah
Oh Yeah
Money Talkin'

yeay yeah yeah
Oh Yeah
Money Talkin'
yeay yeah yeah
Oh Yeah

Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah

Money talks
Money, money
I say yeah
Money talks
Money, money
I said yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah
Money talk
Money, money
I say yeah
Money talk
Money, money
I say yeah
Money talks
Money, money
Money talk
Money, money
