

Fragile

Rick Price

The first time I saw her
She was looking just like an angel in the night
I tried hard not to cause no suspicion
But she saw the look in my eye
But I don't want to hurt her
And I don't want to see her cry
But I want to love her like a woman
But she's so...

Fragile, so
Fragile, so
Fragile, fragile

Sophisticated, just like a lady
Sweet and innocent like a child
I want to take her in my arms and hold her
And I just can't resist her smile
But I wouldn't want to hurt her
And I don't want to see her cry
But I want to love her like a woman
But she's so...

Fragile, so
Fragile, so
Fragile, fragile

Everywhere I go, she's inside my head
So now tell me what I am gonna do
'Cause she's so...

Fragile, so
Fragile, so
Fragile, fragile
