

Until We Meet Again

Rick Price

Oh, alas the time has come
For us a parting of the ways
Though all our songs are not yet sung
We can but trust and chance the days

We may not know what life will bring
If pain and sorrow should descend
But we shall have this song to sing
Oh, until we meet again

So let us not speak of goodbye
Nor shall we say this is the end
For loving hearts shall keep us nigh
Oh, until we meet again

Now every soul must travel on
'Cross mountains steep and oceans wide
But courageous love shall bring us home
And safely to the other side

So let us not speak of goodbye
Nor shall we say this is the end
For loving hearts shall keep us nigh
Oh, until we meet again

Oh, oh, oh, oh oh...

Until, oh, until
Until we meet again
