Rick Ross

Lights camera action the satisfaction
The price she paid to be with me is why I'm laughing
The dice you gotta take a chance to fill the magic It's nice once you touch it and you finally have it
Fine dining and wine tasting becomes a habit
But better watch your homegirl, you know she try bag him
The last from this fabric a trapper
Who was established his name
Mastered the game and detached with no stain
The fact that she would stash for Rain
Volunteered to put the Jag in her name
Is why she got her bags on this plane
Headed to Paris, with a seat by me
Lunch at the Clamato, Bordeaux by the bottle, we on

Can we do this often
Can we make this something
Special enough
Where you pulling up
Can we do this often
Breakfast in Bed when I'm waking up
Chanel bags, girl you know I spend it
Give you what you deserve
Do it often

Mama boy is a don, talking Formula One
At my door with a gun, really wanted a bomb
Making money my racket, made a mill in Palatka
Feds keep watching my taxes, taking pictures to tag me
Emeralds all in my Patek while I'm facetimeing with Khaled
Who the best was the challenge, flew the jets from Atlanta
Yes, I woke up in Paris, bracelets flooded with karats
All you niggas are haters
We should pray for your parents
Shop till I drop Fatman Scoop on the block
Another angel we lost, white air forces no sox
Caesar serving me salads, empty clips with no malice
Always talking my story get my dick sucked in the palace
The biggest

Can we do this often
Can we make this something
Special enough
Where you pulling up
Can we do this often
Breakfast in Bed when I'm waking up
Chanel bags, girl you know I spend it
Give you what you deserve
Do it often

Let's do this often maneuver Porsches
Hustlers marrying actresses, go through divorces
I'll get the house in the settlement close to where Ross live
Rerun the route with a better bitch who's more important
Oriental vases made of porcelain heightens your taste level
Emerald face Piagets with the plain bezel
Clean up the gift wrappings as the day settles

Get in with me rinse and repeat, let's do this often

Can we do this often

Can we make this something

Special enough

Where you pulling up

Can we do this often

Breakfast in Bed when I'm waking up

Chanel bags, girl you know I spend it

Give you what you deserve

Do it often
