

Invisible World

Rick Springfield

You whispered so discreetly
I'm the man that time forgot
I want to disappear completely
You ask me why I say why not?
Always dreamed of a private island
With someone just like you
Where the air is still and silent
Under a hidden sky of blue

But I am free in the invisible world
I disappear from view
Here the stars are tangled and twirled
Here I wait for you

Live with eyes wide open but head buried in the sand
I see the world is broken
But I'm just a singer in a band

But I am free in the invisible world
I disappear from view
Here the stars are tangled and twirled
Here I wait for you
Lay with me in my invisible world
I'm a real-life refugee
Cling to me in the shape of a girl
And let the girl run free

Alsalam ealaykum
The wings of peace unfurled
Alsalam ealaykum
In my invisible world

I am free in the invisible world (I am you)
I disappear from view (I let you take my heart)
Here the stars are tangled and twirled (midnight blue)
Here I wait for you (I cannot stand apart)
Lay with me in my invisible world (yeah)
I'm a real-life refugee (I know it heals you)
Cling to me in the shape of a girl (I am)
And let the girl run free (Yeah it reveals you)

Alsalam ealaykum
