

Shock to my System

Rick Springfield

So there I stood, square on my side of the great divide,
A message came across the void and for the first time in my life,
I'm awake, I'm alive. I thought I was immune to this Till I felt the static charges in the air.
I touch you, you're a live wire, you're the raw fire burning in my heart,
It took me by surprise, that's no lie.

You know you are, you are a sharp, shock to my system, a spark, a real shock. You know you are, you are a sharp
Shock to my system
You start I can't stop
You taught me how to listen shock to my system

My soul, my skin, you plug me in and all of my pain is gone just like it never was.
And for the first time in my life I know what I feel Now every time we touch I'm caught off my guard. That's no lie.

Shock to my system
