Hello No!

Ricki-Lee

Hell No,

on your way to work and it's all good,
the traffic hits you like you knew it would,
you want to scream but you got to hold it back, hold it back.

Is it right if your mans coming home late?
Got your girls at your ear saying too late!
And he's down on his knees saying 'baby, take me back, take me back!'

Take it slow,
you got me so worked up,
I'm pulling my hair out,
hey, I'm about to hit somebody.

Somebody chill me out,
why cant you just keep me down?
I got to get this off my chest.

Pass the screener, got no money,
people telling jokes, that ain't funny.
drunken bar fights,
catching red lights. Hell no, hell no.

Guys with attitude,
girls complaining,
waiting in line,
wont stop raining,
all this s that got me saying, hell no, hell no.

Working hard at two jobs, just to get by.
Got a boss that's making my head fry.
Make me late, expect me to sit back.
Take a breath, take a breath.

All the girls be making up stories,
looking to bring me down 'cause they worry,
about holding back their insecurities.

Take it slow,
you got me so worked up,
I'm pulling my hair out,
I'm about to hit somebody.

Somebody chill me out,
why cant you just keep me down?
I got to get this off my chest.

Pass the screener, got no money,

catching red lights. Hell no, hell no.
