

Runaway

Ricki-Lee

I count the stars at midnight
They look like heaven's street life
If loving you means leaving this universe
Then we can build a house on Jupiter
And make the moon our sunrise

We can run away tonight (we can run away)
And we can find a place in the music
A place in the music
We can run away tonight (we can run away)
And hold on to the love, 'till we lose it
The love, 'till we lose it

You are the answer to my prayer
'Cause I can die in this moment and wouldn't even care
'Cause all I need is right here, in your eyes
And I don't need a better reason why
We can leave this life behind

We can run away tonight (we can run away)
And we can find a place in the music
A place in the music
We can run away tonight (we can run away)
And hold on to the love, 'till we lose it
The love, 'till we lose it

We can run away tonight (we can run away)
And we can find a place in the music
A place in the music
We can run away tonight (we can run away)
And hold on to the love, 'till we lose it
The love, 'till we lose it
