Is it me, is it you
Who's playing the fool?
This body language makes it feel like it's true
My hands over you
I'm treating you like my boo
Why am I doing this?
Where are we going?

This party, let's take this to my house
I can see, that you want me right now
This party, can be resumed right now
I guarantee that you want me right now

Don't slow it down, pick it up, bring it up
Your body tough, turn me on, I'm winding up
Got me feeling cocky, only the beat can stop me
And the sweat from the heat make you wanna take off your clothes

I promised myself I wouldn't make you fall for me
Now I'm stuck on you, I feel like it's the wrong way
There's no turning back, so I'ma have to make you stay
So baby...

This party, let's take this to my house
I can see, that you want me right now
This party, can be resumed right now
I guarantee that you want me right now
