

Lottery

Ricky Dillon

Ever feel so good? Well, you always should Ever been so wild? Fellas, you can't hide
Got me dancing in the street, singing your name
Got me looking back, that's a double-take

The sun's so bright
The feeling's right
Where have you been all my life?

You've got me feeling like
A million-dollars, baby
Brand new Mercedes
The winning ticket
Feels like I won the lottery
Million-dollars, baby
Brand new Mercedes
I hit the lottery, lottery

Lottery
I hit the lottery, lottery
Lottery
Lottery, lottery

It would be alright if the sky fell down
Keep my floating high in the clouds
Man, I'm surfing on the highest wave
Like a rockstar, killing the stage

The sun's so bright
The feeling's right
Where have you been all my life?

You've got me feeling like
A million-dollars, baby
Brand new Mercedes
The winning ticket
Feels like I won the lottery
Million-dollars, baby
Brand new Mercedes
I hit the lottery, lottery

Lottery
I hit the lottery, lottery
Lottery
Lottery, lottery

Is this paradise?
What heaven feels like?
Had you in my sights
When you fell from the sky
Ooh, when you smile
Keeps me up all night
I hit the lottery, lottery

You've got me feeling like

The winning ticket
Brand new Mercedes

I hit the lottery, lottery
