

Borrow Indefinitely

Ricky Martin

We are the same, you and I
Destined for greatness and yet cast aside
Treated like we've done something wrong
Look at you, covered in rags
And a smell I would rather not mention
But our reality could be a thing of the past
All that's required is you listen

I can see your name in lights
Gustafson and Don Juan by your side
A rare opportunity
If you learn to borrow indefinitely, ha

Ha-ha
Alright

It's easy
It's not stealing
When you borrow indefinitely
