

Fire Breathin' Dragon

Ricky Nelson

I can see myself, a knight in shining armour
And I can see you there, a lady in distress
There I go, off to the rescue
Sword in hand, doin' my best to save you from
The fire breathin' dragon
Oh I do it every night

I can see you there, the lovely sleeping beauty
Waiting for your prince to break that magic spell
There I go, I'm off to kiss you
Yes I know, I must do this to save you from
The sleep that's never ending
Oh I do it every night

Old King Cole was a happy old soul
But not as happy as me
'Cause I've got you both day and night
You're in my dreams and in reality

I can see you there, the lovely Cinderella
And when the clock strikes twelve, you always run away
There I go, off to the rescue
Slipper in hand, doin' my best to save you from
The fire breathin' dragon
The sleep that's never ending
Oh I do it every night
