You know my block list poppin'
You ain't gone dish it do shit little boy just stop it
Don't call my phone if you talking that nonsense
He wanna call me but my block list poppin'
He talkin' reckless so I had to block him
I took her nigga, bitch that ain't my problem
Now she wanna fight me cause she see I'm poppin'
I hate these niggas they be on that option
Told me he love but I stole his wallet
And once he noticed then I had to block him
He wanna smoke well I think I want to rob him
And once I get back to my crib then I will block him

You know my block list poppin'
You know my block list poppin'
You know my block list poppin'
You know my block list poppin'

You know my block list poppin'
I be givin' em hell
He keep on ringin' my cellular
Shot a shot and he failed
You know my block list poppin' like my lip gloss
He so mad I keep on declining his phone calls
I don't love 'em, I don't need em
Gettin' money I can't see you
Bitches hatin' I delete 'em
Keep on textin' me like I'm his girl or something
Wait hold up baby don't use too much emojis
He so wrapped up but he doesn't even know me
Don't think you can text me just cause you lonely
I don't wanna be your baby or your homie
Yeah you talk a good game but can you show me
Yeah yeah because my block list poppin'

You know my block list poppin'
You know my block list poppin'
You know my block list poppin'
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
