

CRASH

Rico Nasty

You make it alright, I can't control a thing
And if it goes wrong, then it's because of me
I need to crash out, can I borrow your bed?
And I'll be all done, and I'll be out of your head

You make it alright, I can't control a thing
And if it goes wrong, then it's because of me
I need to crash out, can I borrow your bed?
And I'll be all done, and I'll be out of your head

When you crash into me and I curl like a wave
Now I'm screaming out, "This time you can stay!"
When you crash into me, I forgive all the pain
And I'm begging you, this time you can stay
This time you can stay

You got me, you spin me all around
You lift me but then I touch the ground
I need it, I want to do it again

I feel you, I want you in my skin
I used to, but now I can't pretend
I want it, I want to do it again
And again and again and again

When you crash into me and I curl like a wave
Now I'm screaming out, "This time you can stay!"
When you crash into me, I forgive all the pain
And I'm begging you, this time you can stay
This time you can stay

Need somewhere to crash like the waves
Need somewhere to crash like the waves
Need somewhere to crash like the waves
Need somewhere to crash like the waves

When you crash into me and I curl like a wave
Now I'm screaming out, "This time you can stay!"
When you crash into me, I forgive all the pain
And I'm begging you, this time you can stay
This time you can stay
