

I fell for your charming words
I let you hit me where it hurts
I let you call me out my name
I let you make me feel ashamed

I let you make me feel this way
I let you make me feel this way
I let you make me feel this way
I let you make me feel this way

Like a knife to my neck, you hold up the mistakes I've made Mess up my makeup so my fans don't think I was cryin' before I got on stage
I find the ugly things beautiful
Guess that explains what I am
Please don't tell me what you'd do in my shoes
That's why you're not who I am (That's why you're not who I am)
I've been a mess since you found me
Sorry that you couldn't fix me
From the start, I just felt like a project
Tryna be what you wanted me to be
I'm so fucked up, I won't go to therapy
Fuck it, should charge you for therapy
We climbin' up hills and mountains
Love's supposed to be easy, oh
(Easy) Oh
(Easy) Oh
(Easy) Oh

(But) I let you make me feel this way
I let you make me feel this way
I let you make me feel this way
I let you make me feel this way

I fell for your charming words
I let you hit me where it hurts
I let you call me out my name (My name)
I let you make me feel ashamed

(And now when you leave) All the scars will stay
(And now when you leave) I can't never have a good day
(And now when you leave) I remember what you said
(And now when you leave) I'm alone in an empty bed
