

Everything

Rico Nasty

Fuck it up!
Yeah!

You blamed me for everything
You blamed me for everything
You blamed me for everything
You blamed me for everything
What's your point in forgiving me?
What's your point in forgiving me?
Cause you blame me for everything
Cause you blame me for everything

I don't know where I went wrong
Will I ever fucking do right?
Baby please, could you just stay tonight?
Promise that I'll always do you right
But not this time! Yeah!

You blamed me for everything
You blamed me for everything
You blamed me for everything
You blamed me for everything
What's your point in forgiving me?
What's your point in forgiving me?
Cause you blame me for everything
Cause you blame me for everything

All the problems you got
You put 'em on me
I thought we was 'posed to be homies
Now you acting like you don't know me
Baby you talk but can you show me?
Lately I've been feeling so lonely
Got all this money and now who knows me?
Nobody!
And it sucks cause...

You blamed me for everything
You blamed me for everything
You blamed me for everything
You blamed me for everything
What's your point in forgiving me?
What's your point in forgiving me?
Cause you blame me for everything
Cause you blame me for everything
