Rico Nasty

(Yeah)

This time won't be nothing like the last one
Smoking so much gas, I forgot to put my mask on
Nails razor sharp, called you off my iPhone
Let me hold my hair for you while you put my ice on

I shine with the lights off, he hates when I don't call
We might hang out once a month, then I'm going AWOL
You need me to win the game, I guess I'm an 8-ball
Two months without me, guess you're having withdrawals
He on my hip like a Tamagotchi
Leave a heart on my wall so I can know you like me (Yeah)
I'm important, can't be seen with just anybody (No)
We was late, but we still pulled up to the party (Woah)

This time won't be nothing like the last one
Smoking so much gas, I forgot to put my mask on (Put my mask on)
Nails razor sharp, called you off my iPhone
Let me hold my hair for you while you put my ice on

Baby, sometimes this life can get lonely
But I love it when you hold me
Love me like I was your only, only
I think I need my space
You still end up at my place
Can't go back to my old ways
Time is now and I can't wait
I'm in love with a nightmare
What you lookin' for? I'm right here
Face the demons, though, I'm not scared
I need your love and it's not fair
He said, "I think my phone is hacked" (He said)
I think my phone is tapped (He said)
I think you've got me blocked (He said)
Why won't you call me back? (He said)
I think I fell in love (He said)
I thought you were the one (He said)
Stop actin' like this (He said)
'Cause you know I need your love (He said, woah)

This time won't be nothing like the last one
Smoking so much gas, I forgot to put my mask on (Put my mask on)
Nails razor sharp, called you off my iPhone
Let me hold my hair for you while you put my ice on
