

Hahaha, Nick you're stupid

I just spent two bands to get my hair did
I ain't in the group so I ain't 'bout to share shit
When I was growin' up you know I was the weird kid
But I'ma Tesla drive myself, I gotta steer it
Yeah, I need a milli - cash, that's a Rico starter kit
I'ma need the whole thing or else, I don't want part of it
I got some niggas who'd remove ya muhfucking cartilage
How the fuck is you gon' claim the trend when I'm who started it?
I'm a real blue Benji and these bitches counterfeit
I'm a innovator, that's why they pay me to illustrate it
I know that it's a risky game but I pray I'm the greatest player
You on the outside lookin' in, so how I'm looking now hater?
I'm eating so good I might fuck 'round, tip 'bout five waiters
I ball like Gasol, when a nigga was playing for the Lakers
Walk him like a dog 'cause these niggas is turnin' into ladies
They bite my sauce but I sell it back like crack in the eighties
I don't hear my haters, y'all motivate me to get the paper
New Chanel bag and the boots, they both alligator
I be goin' up, these bitches should call me elevator
Now I'm blowin' up, these bitches should call me detonator
Now they can't breathe, somebody get them a ventilator

They say they don't like me
They say they don't like me
Bank account look frightening
Bank account look lightning
Lightning come and strike me if I'm lying
Lightning come and strike me if I'm lying

People only like to tell the truth when they gettin' exposed
All this pressure comin' in, it feel like I'm 'bout to explode
I got a nasty bitch, she wolly and oh yeah, she triflin'
And all my diamonds as you know, they always fuckin' shinnin'
Comin' with vengeance, I ain't trippin' off no imperfection
Money comin' in from different ways like it's an intersection
Okay I had a little, made it extra
Keep on runnin', tell 'em catch up
I figured out what was goin' on when I put two and two together

They say they don't like me
They say they don't like me
Bank account look frightening
Bank account look lightning
Lightning come and strike me if I'm lying
Lightning come and strike me if I'm lying
