

Everywhere I go I see pieces of you again
Call it déjà vu, I can't escape you it seems
Iced out, you went and got cold on me
Why cry when I can get high instead
Everywhere I go I see pieces of you again
Call it déjà vu, I can't escape you it seems
Iced out, you went and got cold on me
Why cry when I can get high instead

I can get high instead
I can get high instead
I can get high instead
I can get high instead

Where were you then? Where are you now?
So much fun going up, but I hate to come down
Smoke in the air matches my point of view
I hate having fun 'cause it reminds me of you

I hate having fun 'cause it reminds me of you
I hate having fun 'cause it reminds me of you
I hate having fun 'cause it reminds me of you
I hate having fun 'cause it reminds me of you

Ah
Ah
Ah ah ah
