

Take It There

Riff Raff

If you wanna take it there, I ain't playin' fair
You wanna take it there, I'ma take it there
If you wanna take it there, I ain't playin' fair
All this money, and I still ain't got enough to share

If you wanna take it there, I ain't playin' fair
You wanna take it there, I'ma take it there
If you wanna take it there, I ain't playin' fair
All this money, and I still ain't got enough to share

Uh, wait a minute, you don't wanna take it there
I'ma document it bottle like dollar
Tell you no I ain't playin' fair
Check out my outer wear

I thought she want a relation
Play a bitch like a PlayStation
I told her suck on it with concentration
I blow them hundreds with no hesitation
Drippin' candy paint all over the floor
I just might pop check on your hoes
Shorty gotta pay if she wanna roll
I could turn a bitch to Marilyn Monroe

Breakin' down the West Coast kill OH
Put it in the AU gold leaf
High price of weed, fuck the police
All this money still ain't enough to share
Diamonds hittin' like a snare
Thirty thousand in my air
Pull up in the coupe, it don't got no hair

If you wanna take it there, I ain't playin' fair
You wanna take it there, I'ma take it there
If you wanna take it there, I ain't playin' fair
All this money, and I still ain't got enough to share

If you wanna take it there, I ain't playin' fair
You wanna take it there, I'ma take it there
If you wanna take it there, I ain't playin' fair
All this money, and I still ain't got enough to share

Kareem Abdul Archibald
Architect, I'm all outside of Delaware
Blue face hundred stacked up taller than
Marge Simpson's hair
It's Lisa Simpson when it comes to the sacks
I'll back outta Sack Fifth in a mad Maybach
Back from the future (way back)
Red rubies on raspberry Rolex
Remind me of John Packs in Versus Dracula
I'm at the codein castle
Flippin' promethazine pancakes with a purple spatula

If you wanna take it there, I ain't playin' fair
You wanna take it there, I'ma take it there
If you wanna take it there, I ain't playin' fair

All this money, and I still ain't got enough to share

If you wanna take it there, I ain't playin' fair

You wanna take it there, I'ma take it there

If you wanna take it there, I ain't playin' fair

All this money, and I still ain't got enough to share
