

Tip Toe 4

Riff Raff

Tiptoeing through the jewelry store
Christian Dior mink dragging to the floor
I don't really care about money anymore
Pay me in jewels while I'm pouring up a four
Tiptoeing through the jewelry store
Christian Dior mink dragging to the floor
I don't really care about money anymore
Pay me in jewels while I'm pouring up a four

Only you can tear us apart
Life's no game, there's no restart
If only you could play your part
I tiptoe to the rhythm of your heart
Dance to the Burberry beat
Is she coming with you? Are you coming with me?
It's not hard to see, my favorite number is three
You can pay me my fee in diamond jewelry
Paper comes and goes, price of gold goes up
Never settle down, only marry up
And the doors go up on the cherry truck
Iced up from my head to my cup

Tiptoeing through the jewelry store
Christian Dior mink dragging to the floor
I don't really care about money anymore
Pay me in jewels while I'm pouring up a four
Tiptoeing through the jewelry store
Christian Dior mink dragging to the floor
I don't really care about money anymore
Pay me in jewels while I'm pouring up a four (yeah)

Tiptoe, tiptoe spending a big roll
Ain't no penny flipping city slicking, I hit stores
Went from taking sacks and trapping down at the Citgo
To flipping tickets, to bitches flashing on front rows
Ooh, ain't no dreaming, it's coming true, that's
The cleanest chain, the pinky rings, black and blue, yeah
Used to wish upon a list to bring me the big toys
Now I'm rocking Slumerican, making big noise
Never get mad 'cause I can see them who try to hold me down
Two tears in a bucket, fuck it, I load up a whole round
Pop, pop, pop, pop, pop, into the clip I gotta go
Exotic boots on the floor

Tiptoeing through the jewelry store
Christian Dior mink dragging to the floor
I don't really care about money anymore
Pay me in jewels while I'm pouring up a four

Yeah, ice on my chest like the polar express
Jody Highroller on the back of the headrest
Even after I retire, I'm still in the game
Like the red white and blue rectangular frame

Of the NBA on the silhouette of Jerry West
Next year I might play for the nets
Diamonds green like the autographed Keyshawn Johnson jersey
Back when he use to not want to play for the jets
Louis Vuitton bedspread sets
For my next ten butterscotch bad bitch guests
That would rather argue or have sex
I guess it is easy to be famous online
Then famous really in person
I had to skip town, the paparazzi kept lurking
I had to leave the movie set of Tommy Boy 2
'Cause they tried to pay in cash
But I am only paid in jewels

Tiptoeing through the jewelry store
Christian Dior mink dragging to the floor
I don't really care about money anymore
Pay me in jewels while I'm pouring up a four
