

Tip Toe 5

Riff Raff

KILLBOY

I'm blessed today
No girlfriend, no stress today
Never was a child, so I never got to play
You know crime pays, no minimum wage
I-I-It's closing time
Fishscales fall on my charm, moonshine
Midnight it be fallin' on the cold moonlight
Ooh you know my crimes get organized
Diamonds, diamonds jumpin' out the gym
Ooh meanwhile I'm watching my huskies swim
Can't imagine life any other way
Dale Dan Tony on a razorblade

Tip-toeing through the jewelry store
Christian Dior mink draggin' to the floor
I don't really care 'bout money anymore
Pay me in jewels while I'm pouring up a four
Tip-toeing through the jewelry store
Christian Dior mink draggin' to the floor
I don't really care 'bout shit anymore
Pay me in jewels while I'm pouring up a four

Tip-toeing to the Louis store
Wonder what the hell I'm lookin' at Louis for
I know 'bout that Balenci right next door
But if I wanted for that black and white who for Pre sign that check I wanna cash that shit
So I could freeze a flying [?] around my neck
Keep that gear on my whole body like it's Christmas, yeah
My nose be drippin' through my tippie toes VVS

You can pay me in jewels
You can play me for a fool
God knows what I been through
I been through enough for two
Rainbow diamonds on my hand
Cost at least a hundred grand
I need more jewels than any man
I don't expect you to understand

Tip-toeing through the jewelry store
Christian Dior mink draggin' to the floor
I don't really care 'bout money anymore
What the fuck you think about that tip-toe for?
I'm tip-toeing through the jewelry store
Christian Dior mink draggin' to the floor
I don't give a shit about nothing anymore
Pay me in jewels while I'm pouring up a four

Tip-toeing through the jewelry store
Christian Dior mink draggin' to the floor
I don't really care 'bout money anymore
Pay me in jewels while I'm pouring up a four
