

Cry

Right Said Fred

I could cry all I want
But it's over
I could have tried harder I guess
But it's over

Now I'm looking back
I wonder why
When you said, "Jump!"
I said, "How high?"

I could cry all I want
But you're not coming back to me
I could cry all I want
But you're not coming back to me

I could yell all I want
But you won't listen
And I could kick to myself
When I think of all I'm missing

Now I'm looking back
I wonder why
When you said, "Jump!"
I said, "How high?"

I could cry all I want
But you're not coming back to me
I could cry all I want
But you're not coming back to me

"Gimme a chance", you said
"I promise, I'll be better"
"Gimme a chance", you said
"I promise, I'll be true"

Well, I can cry all I want
But it's over
I can cry all I want
But you're not coming back to me

I can cry all I want
But you're not coming back to me
I can cry all I want
But you're not coming back to me
I can cry all I want
But you're not coming back to me
I can cry all I want
But you're not coming back
I can cry all I want
But you're not coming back to me

"Gimme a chance", you said
"I promise"
"Gimme a chance", you said
"I promise"
"Gimme a chance", you said
"I promise"
