

Happily Ever After

Right Said Fred

I don't wanna be in your story unless it has a happily ever after
I don't wanna be in your story unless it has a happily ever after

Once upon a time the girl was mine
Everything we had was doing fine
And then she changed the way she was Turned her back on me because of people, people

There was a time she couldn't do no wrong
Suddenly I find the magic gone
I won't be there to save the day
Talking she's been led astray by people, people

I don't wanna be in your story unless it has a happily ever after
I don't wanna be in your story unless it has a happily ever after
I don't wanna be in your story, I don't wanna be sad and sorry
I don't wanna be, I don't wanna be
I don't wanna be in your story unless it has a happily ever after

People saying things you think are true
Soon they're gonna talk about you too
When it all comes back to you
Are you gonna turn to your people, people

I don't wanna be in your story unless it has a happily ever after
I don't wanna be in your story unless it has a happily ever after
I don't wanna be in your story, I don't wanna be sad and sorry
I don't wanna be, I don't wanna be
I don't wanna be in your story unless it has a happily ever after
