Defiance

Righteous Vendetta

I will spit in the face of defeat
Standing at the feet of my enemy
With fearless taste
I'm here to claim my victory

With a rope around my neck
I can feel the pressure of cheating death
I am facing the giants
Planning to silence the nations

Great is the power of violence
But greater is the power of defiance

Come on stand up
Put your hands up
Live in defiance
Come on stand up
Put your hands up
Live in defiance

Overtaken by the sound of the cadence
Can you hear it?
A million lives were there for the taking
Not one was spared history in the making

I am what the tyrants call a fire in the sky
I am a warrior
I'm not afraid to die

Great is the power of violence
But greater is the power of defiance

Come on stand up
Put your hands up
Live in defiance
...

I am the rising sun
I am the chosen one

Come on stand up
Put your hands up
Live in defiance

I am the rising sun
I am the chosen one
