

Unshakable

Righteous Vendetta

You make me hate
Everything around
Me is fading now
I can't stay afloat
It feels like hell
Is crashing down
Like god himself
Left me to drown

But I take this hate ya
Use it like a lifeline
A little bit goes a long way in the limelight
I'd rather die
Than see another fake friend fake truth
For the sake of your lies

Unforgivable
You make my mind so cynical
You think you're so invincible
I'll never stop
I'm coming for you
I am unshakable
I am unshakable

But I know this hate is slowly changing me
From the light to the dark, I make my way in gladly
The farther I get, the deeper it hurts
The more I regret, the darker I turn

Hate ya
Use it for my own gain
It's been building since the day that you betrayed me
Some things never die
Like the promise that I made to bury you

Unforgivable
You make my mind so cynical
You think you're so invincible
I'll never stop
I'm coming for you
I am unshakable
I am unshakable
