

Saving Me

Riley Clemmons

Everybody wanna look so pretty, feeling uptight
Gotta show 'em you're living a good life
Gotta make it look so bright
Everybody love picture perfect
Let 'em see a world with a pain free version
That's right
But I make it look just right

But I keep feeling the pressure
And I can't keep it together
'Cause

Sometimes I'm fragile, sometimes I go to extremes
Sometimes I can't get past my insecurities
Even on my best day, I'd say, "I'm still incomplete"
Thank God, I've got just what I need
Savior saving me
Savior saving me

Ain't it funny I'm my own worst critic
Forgetting all the time that I've been forgiven
No shame, every part of me is replaced
So I'm here, eyes up in confidence
Hanging on every single word You say
Today, always, You love me just the same

Sometimes I'm fragile, sometimes I go to extremes
Sometimes I can't get past my insecurities
Even on my best day, I'd say, "I'm still incomplete"
Thank God, I've got just what I need
Savior saving me
Savior saving me
Saving me, yeah

When I start feeling the pressure
Remind me You hold me together

Sometime I'm fragile, sometimes I go to extremes (I go to extremes)
Sometimes I can't get past my insecurities
Even on my best day, I'd say, "I'm still incomplete" (I'm still incomplete)
Thank God, I've got just what I need
Savior saving me
Savior saving me

Saving, saving, yeah
Me, yeah
Save me, save me, save me
