

In Love by Now

Riley Green

Bet she's got them windows rolled down
Tom Petty's on, she's singin' along
Bet she's all tanned up from that summer sun

And she might be dancin'
To a long-haired cover band on the coast
But if I know her
She ain't dancin' alone

She's probably in love by now
A girl like that
Don't stay lonely long
And I bet she's already found
Somebody else
And he ain't doin' her wrong
Wouldn't do no good
Even if I could
Somehow track her down
She's probably in love by now

Bet she's prettying up some old boy's
Shotgun seat, toenails painted pink
I bet those RayBans are holdin' that blonde hair back

I bet he's holdin' her close at night
And she ain't losin' any sleep
If I know her
She sure ain't thinkin' bout me

She's probably in love by now
A girl like that
Don't stay lonely long
And I bet she's already found
Somebody else
And he ain't doin' her wrong
Wouldn't do no good
Even if I could
Somehow track her down
She's probably in love by now
Yeah she's probably in love

Wherever she is out there tonight
I bet her heart ain't hurtin' like mine

She's probably in love by now
Yeah she's probably in love by now

She's probably in love by now
A girl like that
Don't stay lonely long
And I bet she's already found
Somebody else
And he ain't doin' her wrong
Wouldn't do no good
Even if I could
Somehow track her down
She's probably in love by now

Yeah she's probably in love
She's probably in love by now
