

DEAD & OVER

RILEY

Said she drove from the valley (Drove from the valley)
Left the car with the valet (With the valet)
I don't think I could want any other girl this badly (Any other girl)
Said she here for the weekend (Here for the weekend)
If I didn't know (Didn't know)
I think it's time to figure out if you're ready to go (If you're ready to go
)
You told me you don't wanna party no more (No more, no more)
Your other man can't even afford the seats on the floor (Even)
Tell me what you're about, oh yeah
Let me figure you out, oh yeah
We could drain the account
But tell me why you're lyin'
Tell me, tell me, tell me

White lies, white lies
All these white lines, I'm barely sober
That's why, that's why
As long as I'm alive, it's dead and over
White lines, white lines
All these white lines, I'm barely sober
That's why, that's why
As long as I'm alive, it's dead and over
As long as I'm alive, it's dead and over
As long as I'm alive, it's dead and over

Remember when you told me it was all okay
That you don't date for fame
I wonder if it's still the same (Ooh yeah)
Or if you lyin'
I know you want it, you got it
Go flaunt it, 'cause baby I'm off you acting like a hoe
And now you still think about me
You don't live in 'Cali no more
You went and moved out to Miami and left this sad song
What's the difference to me? Ooh yeah
If you in VIP, ooh yeah
You're still down on your knees
Like you prayin' 'cause you lyin'
Tell me, tell me, tell me

White lies, white lies
All these white lines, I'm barely sober
That's why, that's why
As long as I'm alive, it's dead and over
White lines, white lines
All these white lines, I'm barely sober
That's why, that's why
As long as I'm alive, it's dead and over (Dead and over)
As long as I'm alive, it's dead and over (Dead and over)
As long as I'm alive, it's dead and over (Dead and over)
As long as I'm alive, it's dead and over (Dead and over)
Dead and over
