

MAKE BELIEVE

RILEY

I'm on the edge with somebody
So, I need to call you to ask if you're done with me now
Wish you knew how to say sorry
But you said "there's nothing left to save"
Now I'm over it

And I didn't know when I let you go
I'd find somebody to replace you
She doesn't know that I call your phone
Even though I say I still hate you now
When every time I say I won't, I won't

Make believe you deserve it the way that you are
You and me in the back of your car
There's no way in the world I could choose
So I guess I'll make believe she's you

Sometimes I make believe that she is you
And hope she doesn't know that I'm that cold
Yeah, yeah, yeah
She's better than you've ever been to me
But somehow I can't let you go, I'm tryin', though
Yeah, yeah

'Cause I didn't know when I let you go
I'd find somebody to replace you
She doesn't know that I call your phone
Even though I say I still hate you now
When every time I say I won't, I won't

Make believe you deserve it the way that you are
You and me in the back of your car
There's no way in the world I could choose
So I guess I'll make believe she's you

She was lighting my time in the dark
She was there when you broke me apart
There's no way I could tell her the truth
So I guess I'll make believe she's you

Make believe that I'm fallin' for someone new
Make believe when we kiss, I could just taste you
Make believe that somebody makes me feel like you do
So I guess I'll make believe she's you

So I guess I'll make believe she's you
So I guess I'll make believe she's you
So I guess I'll make believe she's you
So I guess I'll make believe she's you
