

PINK LINEN

RILEY

In your pink linen
I know I've been replaced
I know that you're with him
And I wonder what it'd take for you to forget him
'Cause you're running out of space inside your pink linen
In your pink linen, yeah

You're calling it quits
I'm with a two piece in side of their Benz
You wanted a switch so I just ended up calling your friends
We was at Nobu thinking where you at
And I don't wanna fight no more 'bout the hoes I attract 'cause
You don't want me no more so I stay out late till four
Say I'm good when you're calling, act a fool cause I'm balling
Hope that makes you upset, I been thinkin 'bout you, yeah

In your pink linen
I know I've been replaced
I know that you're with him
And I wonder what it'd take for you to forget him
'Cause you're running out of space inside your pink linen
In your pink linen, yeah
I thought I was sound I know
But I burn down every place I call home
In your pink linen
'Cause you're running out of space inside your pink linen
In your pink linen, yeah

Everything's pressing me lately, It gives me anxiety
So I keep one hand on the wheel and a gun right beside of me
I wonder if anything's real or is that's what's inside of me
Man, I'm tryna be
Look, I'm tryna be you
Look, I'm tryna forget with Birkin bags just like you do
And I only buy everything when I'm upset, you know I do
This ain't all just regret I'm tryin, stop lying

In your pink linen
I know I've been replaced
I know that you're with him
And I wonder what it'd take for you to forget him
'Cause you're running out of space inside your pink linen
In your pink linen, yeah
I thought I was sound I know
But I burn down every place I call home
In your pink linen
'Cause you're running out of space inside your pink linen
In your pink linen, yeah

In your pink linen
I know I've been replaced
I know that you're with him
And I wonder what it'd take for you to forget him
'Cause you're running out of space inside your pink linen
In your pink linen, yeah
