RILEY

Whatcha' gonna do for me?
Why you riding 'round in a coupe with me?
Nah, she ain't been true to me
Pop another pill and you'll get through to me, yeah yeah

Dead inside like a trap house
On the 405 and I'm blacked out
Take another bar till I pass out
Dope is in the bag now

She thumb through all of the cash in the safe
Fucking with me and the team, and I'd be better off of this drink
Been up for days
Thinking bout all of the shit you would say
Gun in my face
RPO jump out and I'm in LA
You've been away

She thumb through all of the cash in the safe
Fucking with me and the team, and I'd be better off of this drink
Been up for days
Thinking bout all of the shit you would say
Gun in my face
RPO jump out and I'm in LA
You've been away

Before don't leave me in the headlights
Always catch you on the side like
I'm over playing with the satellites
Acting like a fiend and I'm sky high

Another pill just to bring me down
Another drink and I'm still around
She don't wanna wait for the comedown
Type in the code and

She thumb through all of the cash in the safe
Fucking with me and the team, and I'd be better off of this drink
Been up for days
Thinking bout all of the shit you would say
Gun in my face
RPO jump out and I'm in LA
You've been away

She never gave a damn 'bout me
Never made a plan for me
Never held it down for me
Never rolled around with me

Every night a crisis, I'm the one to blame
I've been taking anything to numb the pain
I get a lot of visions but they're all the same
I would give it all to never hear your name

She thumb through all of the cash in the safe
Fucking with me and the team, and I'd be better off of this drink
Been up for days
