ANOTHER DAY, ANOTHER CHALLENGE

Rilès

Blood on my cheeks, I'm Rambo
Tired but at least I'm not dead
Everybody asking where the hits at?
Boi I'm no fucking waitress
Get it done or never make it
I'm a champion
I'm a chief, bitch
Imma give it all my sweat, tears, pain, blood, rough taste
That I didn't fake ahh

Now I got a smaller army
But they got me
They went through it all
I'm not afraid to see the ending
But what's coming
After this is over

It's a day and night thing
Mad mad jinx
Tried to get to me, this all along
Many writer's block
And mind tricks
Couldn't stop me
To put on a show

Another day I didn't do shit
Another demon tried to creep in
Another day is not a blessing
Another day's another challenge

Another day I wasn't cool with
Another day I would've not lived
Another day is not a blessing
Another day's another challenge

Tell me when I'm finally feeling free
All this stress is like a déjà vu
Every second, every moment
Brings me to the past to look what I've been through

Every over's a beginning
Every Sunday
On the battlefront
When it's done, how can I stop it?
I will fore-
-ver be on the run

It's a day and night thing
Mad mad jinx
Tried to get to me, this all along
Many writer's block
And mind tricks
Couldn't stop me
To put on a show

Another day I didn't do shit
Another demon tried to creep in

Another day is not a blessing
Another day's another challenge

Another day I wasn't cool with
Another day I would've not lived
Another day is not a blessing
Another day's another challenge
