Rilès

"What do you want out of life? Just survival?"

I'm out of love I might turn into hate to finish what I started, I told you
I tried to meditate I tried to temper, I tried to finesse my emotions
Blocking my demons, inside I feel livid I want to believe that I'm all cool
If I explain what's in my thoughts, that'd be a lie
How can you build an empire with love and desire without a lil (Blah blah)
How can you overachieve and not follow the lead without feeling untied
Tap in the darkness or get fucking barkless, they'll walk over you with a peace sign
I feel attracted, won't get distracted, by demons on the inside

My kurama bout to wake up
Don't wanna listen or play trust
I'm getting out of my way
Bitch I be back on my petty time
My kurama bout to wake up
Don't wanna listen or play trust
I'm getting out of myself, ah

Fuck fuck
Fuck
Fuck

Let it out, let it out now
Let it out, let it out
Not everything just a little out
Let it out, let it out

I'm back in the game, j'ai plus trop la dégaine
J'suis tout skinny, j'ai couru, je me la donne
Felt like a century, bring me more enemies
My demons are not enough
Watch your back
It lurks
Trust no one
Watch your back
It hurts
Just run

I'm getting out of my way
Bitch I be back on my petty time
My kurama bout to wake up
Don't wanna listen or play trust
It's getting out of myself, ah

Fuck fuck
Fuck fuck
Fuck fuck

Fuck fuck
Fuck fuck
Fuck fuck
Fuck fuck
Fuck

Let it out, let it out now

Let it out, let it out
Let it out, let it out
Let it out, let it out
