

Blood & Bones

Rilès

My barge is about to leave, and I won't come back
I won't be back until Anukis, deviates the path
The longer the fight is, the bigger am I
Fucking ocean I can see, thousands of Scyllas

If the wind blows, then I'll blow with it
Be my scarecrow, I'll be your demon
If I know that I know, I'm invincible
If I show what I show, I got a good reason

Like everybody else, you're "the only one"
But on the two-headed king I only see a crown
Still starving for victory, Muhammad Alian
Everything is real, zero overdone
I raise my glass to the Evil all his bitches around
Let's dance together, meia lua de frente
Let's fight forever cause we're on the same ground
Till muscles, till heart, till blood & bones...

Break my legs, cut off my arms
Caucasian eagle don't you see I'm uneatable?
Torture's mate, crucified lungs
I got a second wind, I sweep this fucking Nemean lion

(And I'm still on my barge, killing Scyllas)

I pray on Vinci's ashes, mind like Edvard's Cry
Astonishing, fucking precious
Bitches around can't understand
You know that I'm fucking jealous
Watch your back, watch your dimes
If I made it, I made it on purpose
...I'm fine

Too much to blame, in this game
Still remain, untamed
Pardon me, I'm french
But African veins

(African power motherfucker
Run like an antelope
Motherfucker I'm dope)

Blood & bones...

I came through these fences
Blood & bones
Ashes to ashes
Blood & bones
Bitches and bitches
Blood & bones
Clashes and crashes
Blood & bones
