

CHILLS

Rilès

Everytime she walks past me
I get the chills she knows that
Why you keep on playing with my feelings on the low?
Everytime she walks past me
I feel the thrill she knows that
Hmm, she keep on playing with my feelings that's for sure

Like how you fitting in them jeans
Like how you pretending to work
Like how you glancing in between
Just like you make me a lil more thirsty
Like how you pretending to pretend
What is you doing this weekend?
Imma take you out and speak french
At my expanses
You took a place in my fantasy
What is your name, are we enemies?
Don't be so cold, is you mad at me? (Ahhh)
Maybe I'm overly trippin'
Wish I could read inside your mind

Everytime she walks past me
I get the chills she knows that
Why you keep on playing with my feelings on the low?
Everytime she walks past me
I feel the thrill she knows that
Hmm, she keep on playing with my feelings that's for sure

Why you make me like that?
Why am I catching feelings?
Why can't I simply say that?
I'm trynna get your attention
Why am I attracted like that?
Why do I need you presence?
Why can't I simply say that
I...

I'm trynna get to you
Without you thinking I'm naughty, girl
I'm trynna talk to you
Without you thinking I'm too nice
Keep on ignoring the signs
That made me want you even more
You probably think cuz I'm famous
I'm used to get them chicks
On and on again
Wish I could lie but you ain't wrong
I can't promise that I changed
So tell me you feel that when we cross

Everytime she walks past me
I get the chills she knows that
Why you keep on playing with my feelings on the low?
Everytime she walks past me
I feel the thrill she knows that
She keep on playing with my feelings that's for-

Everytime she walks past me
I get the chills she knows that
Why you keep on playing with my feelings on the low?
Everytime she walks past me
I feel the thrill she knows that
Mmh, she keep on playing with my feelings that's for sure

Why you make me like that
Why am I catching feelings
Why can't I simply say that
(I'm) trynna get your attention
Why am I attracted like that?
Why do I need you presence?
Why can't I simple say that
I...

Everytime she walks past me
I get the chills she knows that
Why you keep on playing with my feelings on the low?
Everytime she walks past me
I feel the thrill she knows that
Hmm, she keep on playing with my feelings that's for sure
